

Jocelyn (Joy) Haber, and on occasion, her mother, Rose, cared for my mother during the last months of her life.

I can vouch for these ladies' honesty, and also for their character.

They truly love what they do and are very good at it.

A talented singer, Joy was able to get my mother, an Alzheimer's patient, involved in activities no one else could. She did little things that weren't required of her. Since I lived out of town, almost daily, she sent me photographs of Mama with a beautiful smile on her face. I will treasure those pictures forever.

There were times when I needed an extra shift covered, and Joy cancelled her personal plans to help out.

Without hesitation, I would recommend Joy and Rose to anyone who has a loved one that needs a trustworthy caregiver.
